DEDICATIONS

To Harold Kerrick and Jean Carroll -
Your dedication to the Yates County Fair has left an incredible mark on our community.

Harold, held a steady hand with spirited enthusiasm behind the demolition derbies bringing energy and excitement year after year.

Jean, with her kindness and reliability at the fair on the gates and in the office kept the fair running smoothly with a warm, welcoming touch.

Together, you've given countless hours and hard work and in doing so, you've helped make the Yates County Fair not just an event, but a cherished tradition.

GENERAL RULES

1. All exhibits in any department, except for the Junior Department, are open to the world, except as directors may decide or to the capacity of our facilities.
2. All exhibits will be under the control of the officers and the Board of Directors, but the Society will in no event be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.
3. Vendors of merchandise will be allowed on the grounds only on obtaining a license.
4. Concessionaires must keep their spaces in a neat and sanitary condition removing there from all filth and refuse and placing it in garbage cans.
5. No disorderly conduct, immoral or lewd exhibitors will be allowed on the grounds. This rule will be enforced by the Yates County Sherriff's Department.
6. Exhibitors, after having properly entered their articles with the Secretary, must deliver them to the Superintendent of the appropriate department. The cards furnished by the Secretary to the exhibitor must be attached to the article exhibited in a conspicuous manner and remain thereon during the Fair.
7. ALL ANIMAL ENTRIES DUE June 30th. All other entries due the day before the opening of the Fair. For animals, late entries may be accepted on a space available basis, at the discretion of the Superintendent. Late entries must pay double the entry fee. Articles entered for premiums must be in place as follows: Fruit, School, Farm, Garden, Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Antique Engines, Domestic Arts, 4-H and FFA must be in place at 12 noon the opening day of the Fair.
8. Articles entered for premiums must be in place as follows: Fruit, School, Farm, Garden, Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Antique Engines, Domestic Arts, 4-H and FFA must be in place at 12 noon the opening day of the Fair.
9. All entries must be in the name of the actual owner or some member of their family and must remain on the grounds until 6:00 pm on the last day, unless excused by the Secretary. Ownership must be proven if required.
10. No animal or article will be allowed to compete for more than one premium. Junior project exception. Animals competing for premiums may, however, compete for herd or flock prizes. This rule may be waived by department Superintendent.
11. Premium cards have no value as to payment of premiums. Premiums are paid only from the record of the awarding judges book.
12. The Society reserves the right to withhold the premium awarded in any case where it shall appear that the rules and regulations have not been complied with, or fraud or deception practiced or attempted.
13. Exhibits that have been erroneously entered may be transferred to the proper class upon application to the Secretary.
14. All judge's books shall remain with the Secretary when not in actual use.
15. The Secretary is empowered to refuse any or all entries that are not deemed best for the interests of the department.
16. Any exhibitor detected making any attempt to acquaint the judge with the names of the owner or any article or animal entered for competition before the premiums are awarded will be barred from receiving any prize. The rule will be enforced rigidly.

17. None but tuberculin tested cattle will be allowed on the grounds of the Society.
18. Entries in all classes of livestock, except grades, must be purebred and pedigree furnished when required.
19. Regardless of competition, no article or animal not deserving will receive any premium.
20. The Society endeavors to obtain the best judges possible. Any persons interfering with or dictating to any judge will forfeit all premiums to the Society.
21. The grounds will be ready for the reception of commercial exhibits after 10 am on the day prior to the opening day of the Fair.
22. The Fair Grounds will be patrolled. Anyone caught attempting illegal entry will be prosecuted at once.
23. Entries will be taken at the Fair Grounds on opening day of the Fair before 10 am.
24. Checks not cashed by November 1 of the year issued will be cancelled and no reimbursement considered. Checks will be issued not later than October 1 of the year of the Fair.
25. The Board of Directors reserves the right to adjust any and all premium money according to reimbursement by the State of New York.
26. Any species of animal for which there is an approved rabies vaccine must be inoculated against rabies at least 14 days prior to the opening day of the Fair and this information must be included on the health chart.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS

1. The entrance of all departments with the exception of 4-H, FFA, School, will be 10% of the first premium competed for, except as stated under department heading. All entrance fees must be paid at the time the entries are made.
2. The premiums awarded will be designated as follows: FIRST, blue; SECOND, red; THIRD, white.
3. Every exhibitor must purchase an exhibitor's pass before making entries, except those exhibiting in the School and 4-H Club departments.
4. To any exhibitor paying ($15.00) fifteen dollars or over in entry fees on livestock, a helpers or attendants pass may be purchased at a cost of ($15.00) fifteen dollars each.

The Yates County Fair Officers & Directors wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to all of our honored sponsors for their continued support to the Fair, their community, and our youth.

Without your continued support, your donated equipment, your valuable time, and your expertise, we could not provide our community and our youth with quality events during the summer. So on behalf of our community, we are ever grateful of your acts of kindness.

Thank
You
